

Joshua Cherry

| 508 Elford Road Fairless Hills PA 19030 | (267) 875-8186 | Joshua.Cherry1985@gmail.com |

Skills and Abilities

- Highly detailed orientated with proven ability to reach targeted goal through strong organizational and excellent interpersonal skills.
- Years of knowledge with pharmaceutical, laboratory standards and medical background.
- Possess strong analytical skills, problem solving utilizing analytical and quantitative methods.
- Knowledgeable of working with mainframe computers, local and wide area networks, data entry and microcomputer systems.

License

- Adjuster License NPN: 18956358
- Casualty and Property Adjuster License: LN2350048

Employment Career History/Work Experience

American Independent Companies, Inc.

Date of Employment: 05/14/2019 – Present

Job Description:

- Investigated claims by reviewing first notice of loss and supporting materials, determines the best first point of contact (claimants, lessee, witnesses, etc.) to gather information regarding injuries or loss.
- Established action plans based on case facts, best practices, protocols, jurisdictional issues and available resources.
- Managed an inventory of property/casualty and disability claims (e.g. workers' compensation, general liability, commercial automobile, property, group benefits, catastrophe loss), evaluates compensability/liability and losses, and negotiates settlements within prescribed limits.
- Identified suspicious losses. Recommends referral to SIU where appropriate and may assist the SIU in their investigation and settling of the claim.
- Reviewed HCFA and medical records to deem treatment and procedures are with-in view of injuries.

WIRX Pharmaceutical

Date of Employment: 04/2017 – 07/2018

Job Description:

- Performed operations ensuring quality of production and/or lab testing.
- Followed departmental work instructions, SOPs, OSHA safety regulations and cGMPs to perform tasks.
- Monitored and oversee lab supply inventory, generate expense purchase requisitions, maintaining documentation in accordance with established procedures.
- Maintained laboratories daily supplies prepare buffers as needed/required.
- Scheduled of repairs and preventative maintenance as necessary and report malfunctions to supervisor.

Quest Diagnostics

Date of Employment: 09/2009 – 04/2017

Job Description:

- Executed the laboratory's procedures for specimen handling and processing, test analyses, reporting and maintaining records of patient test result.
- Analyzed specimens using approved testing procedures, afterwards review and release test results.
- Followed CLIA, HIPAA, OSHA, and safety guidelines as described in their respective guidelines.
- Identified problems that may adversely affect test performance or reporting of test results, correct the problems encountered.
- Documented all corrective actions taken when test systems deviate from the laboratories established performance specifications.
- Processed specimens by conducting tests of body fluids, including blood, urine, spinal fluid, and cultures to determine presence of normal and abnormal components.
- Operated, calibrated and maintained instrumentation used in quantitative and qualitative analysis.
- Monitored quality assurance and laboratory activities to ensure the accuracy of laboratory results.
- Recognized factors that affect measurements and results and either correct the problem or elevate to supervisor for resolution.
- Recognized alert/critical test results and inform appropriate personnel.
- Ensured that patient test results are not reported until all corrective actions have been taken and the test system is properly functioning.
- Maintained all patient information in the strictest confidence.